

A Poet's Night

SET 2

“Just Walking In The Rain”

Johnnie Ray

Just walkin' in the rain      Getting soaking wet
Torturing my heart          By trying to forget
Just walkin' in the rain      So alone and blue
All because my heart        Still remembers you

People come to windows (walkin', walkin')
They always stare at me (walkin', walkin')
Shake their heads in sorrow (walkin', walkin')
Saying, "Who can that fool be?" (Oh, oh-oh)

Just walking in the rain            Thinking how we met
Knowing things could change    Somehow I can't forget

~ Instrumental ~

(Just walkin' in the rain)
(Walkin' in the rain)
(Walkin' in the rain)
(Just walkin' in the rain all day ah...)

People come to their windows (walkin', walkin')
They always stare at me (walkin', walkin')
They're shaking their heads in sorrow (walkin', walkin')
Saying, "Who can that fool be?"    (Now who can he be?)

Just walkin' in the rain (walkin' in the rain)
Thinking how we met (walkin' in the rain)
Knowing things have changed (walkin' in the rain)
Somehow I can't forget (walkin' in the rain)
