

Live Music Performance Duration (Sets)

Wedding Dinner / Luncheon Reception

1. Band's Set 1 shall not exceed 1.0 hour (15 songs at max) in total.
2. Set 1 can be separated into Set 1a and Set 1b by inserting agendas in between such as speeches or video presentation. In such planning, lesser songs are to be prepared for Set 1 in total.
3. Band's Set 2 shall not exceed 45 minutes (10 songs at max including encore songs).
4. Set 2 comprises of 3 parts: the first 3 songs (insert your first-dance here), non-stop dance music, the last 4 songs (bid-goodbye).
5. If your agendas are dragged beyond buffer-time, then Set 2 are going to be cut short.

Corporate Function / Gala Dinners

1. Ideally, the band's Set 1 is 45 minutes (10 songs) and Set 2 to be 30 minutes (7 songs).
2. If the itinerary has lesser time allocated for the band's performance, then Set 1 is to be having 30 minutes (7 songs) minimally.
3. If the itinerary has lesser time allocated for the band's performance, then Set 2 is to be having 18 minutes (4 songs) minimally.
4. Alternatively, the band could also perform in 3 sets i.e. (30 + 30 + 15) minutes – provided there are not many agendas.

Wedding (Garden) Ceremony

1. The Prelude is to last for 15 minutes only – estimated 4 to 5 songs (it's played just before the Processional March)
2. Processional music (bridal party march-in, and father-bridal march-in) – 2 songs
3. Recessional music (march-out) – 1 song
4. Post-ceremony is to last for 30 minutes, covering about 7 to 8 songs (during balloon-release, photography, bouquet-tossing, etc.)
