

After-party DJ

- This is not the deck-spinning DJ kind of DJ. This is a music personnel who plays music from 2 devices – laptop and phone.
- Open-format DJ, music sources mainly from Spotify and YouTube.
- You may actually prefer the original sounds of how the songs was initially recorded, hence, this sort of music playback suits you.
- Songs request are definitely allowed.
- Typically, this session last 1 hour, depending on the remaining time of the event/wedding when it ended.
- Some venues may allow music to be played until late, some don't'.
- When to take this option? – if the live band setup you're hiring is not a full band, and that the band is not ready with hyper dancing songs.
- When to take this option? – your family and friends simply enjoy dancing the whole night; party people!
- When to take this option? – trying to keep your expenses within a tight budget, cause' hiring a deck-spinning DJ easily cost you much more.
